

Sharing the Bread and Cup:

This is God's banquet – everyone is welcome! The bread and cup will be shared by intinction tonight. Please take your bread and dip it into the common cup before eating. Gluten-free alternatives are available. For those who wish to be served in the pew, please indicate to the ushers in the side aisles with the serving trays.

Candlelighting: The Christ Candle

One: A baby has been born for us;

Two: A child has been given to us.

One And his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Eternal Father, the Prince of Peace. Once we were no people;

All: Now we are God's people; Once we walked in darkness;

One: Now we see a great light.

The Christ candle is lit.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

ONE: O God, you have entered this moment. And in your sacred presence the holy is tangled with the ordinary, the bread and cup are the things of heaven, and your Spirit is embodied in our gathered hearts.

ALL: Come, be among us, God-with-us.

ONE: You came to us once, O God, in a stable in Bethlehem. Come and be with us again, in a world that hungers for bread and for truth. Be with us in the diversity of creation, the challenge of the prophets, the courage of those who heard your call. Be with us in Jesus, broken and whole, reconciled with you and one another.

ALL: Come, be among us, God-with-us.

ONE: Be present in this holy time: in the quiet of our stillness, in the power of our celebrations, in communities of faith and places of welcome. Reveal to us the good news. For we would remember the story of Jesus breaking bread and blessing cup and celebrating new life, even in the shadow of fear and grief.

ALL: Come, be among us, God-with-us.

ONE: As once your Spirit poured out life upon the earth, come now and pour out your blessing upon all creation, waiting once again for new life.

ALL: Come, be among us, God-with-us.
