We acknowledge with respect the history, spirituality, and culture of the indigenous peoples of Canada, and their stewardship of the unceded and unsundered Algonquin land where this church is built.

Rideau Park United Church seeks to be a welcoming faith community, inclusive of all, including those of different economic, ethnic, racial and religious backgrounds, sexual orientations and gender identities. We recently voted to be designated an Affirming Ministry, as defined by the United Church of Canada. Celebration: September 29, 10:00 am service.

Reminder: Please note that the services at Rideau Park are live-streamed on our website: www.rideaupark.ca on Sunday mornings only, and then they are posted mid-week under "Webcast Service Archives" for your enjoyment. Good to know if you're stuck at home due to illness, or bad weather, or out of town!

Steve Clifton

Thank you to Jeanette Caton and Andrew Ager for the ministry music today.

The flowers in the sanctuary this morning are in loving memory of Nicol Kettles from his family.

“The movement for Jesus was always from the outside in. His message was always one of inclusion, communicated through speaking to people, healing them, and offering them what biblical scholars call “table fellowship,” that is, dining with them, a sign of welcome and acceptance in first-century Palestine. In fact, Jesus was often criticized for this practice. But Jesus’s movement was about inclusion. He was creating a sense of “us.”
