This is a great time of year to go through your closets, drawers and bookshelves - see what you don't need anymore, what books you've loved and are ready to pass along - and then to add some new pieces to your spring and summer wardrobe, and pick up your new summer reads.

If you're able to spend a few hours sorting or selling donated items, it's a great way to get to become better acquainted with your fellow volunteers. The Nearly New Thrift Sale is consistently a fantastic fundraiser for the UCW. Not only do we deepen relationships, but we also reduce, re-use, recycle and upcycle, AND the money raised goes to local charities - the win-win-win-win-win-win chain just keeps getting longer!
